Dear Sir / Madam,

Wish you all a very Happy and Prosperous 2010.

On behalf of Cancer Aid Society (over 2 decades old ISO 9001:2000 accredited Social Organisation working across the Country on the various aspects of Cancer Control & Palliative Care), Indian Association of Palliative Care and the Organizing Committee of IAPCON 2011, it gives me immense pleasure and honor in inviting you to attend the 18th International Conference of Indian Association of Palliative Care at Sanjay Gandhi Post Graduate Institute of Medical Sciences, LUCKNOW - the historic City of Nawabs rich in cultural heritage.

Our theme, "Networking in Palliative Care" shall seek an answer to:

When the hardcore criminals sentenced to death; are asked for their last wish; which is always fulfilled and all the civilized nations aim at a painless death even for them, isn't it unfortunate that in our country; the patients getting death warrants by Cancer and other life threatening diseases; have to suffer for months together in excruciating pain; cursing themselves for none of their sins and praying for an early death?

Should they not be given freedom from agonizing pain?

Yes! Says WHO by giving them "ORAL MORPHINE". Then why are they deprived of this at the cost of their sufferings, despite India being one of the largest producer of Opium?

We have to go even beyond Oral Morphine to ensure life and death with dignity.

Networking probably has some of the answers:

"Shouldn't freedom from pain be regarded as a Human Rights issue?"

Further, this conference shall serve as an opportunity to strengthen old & forge new ties, you can also visit scores of historical and other places for sightseeing. We have included events that satisfy one and all; keeping up with the famous Lucknawi Tehzeeb and Hospitality

Looking forward to meet you. Thanks & regards.

Truly,

Piyush Gupta

Organising Secretary IAPCON 2011 &

P.E.O., CANCER AID SOCIETY
